

The Daily Courant.

Wednesday, July 18. 1722.

Florence, July 4.

THE Grand Duke, accompanied by the whole Court, was carried in a Litter the 28th past, to the Church of the Holy Ghost; and the two following Days he went to the Church of St. Felicity, where the Host was exposed. The Troops are recruiting with great Diligence, and all the Frontier Towns are putting in a Condition of Defence against any Insult. Sixty Spanish Soldiers, dressed like Pilgrims, were lately taken up in the Lunegiané.

Marfeilles, July 2. In six Days past no Person has fallen sick in this City or Territory, and but three in the Week before, although the Heats were almost insupportable at that time. This makes it believed that the Plague is quite over, and that we may now begin our Quarantain, especially the rest of the Province being in good Health, notwithstanding their Communication with this City. It is greatly wish'd that Matters went as well in Avignon, that we might be no more liable to the Danger of catching new Infection by the Introduction of prohibited Goods from thence: 'Tis hoped nevertheless, that the severe Punishment that is going to be laid upon the Smuglers lately apprehended, may deter others by their Example; besides this, strict Guards are kept at the Frontiers, so that no Person can pass. The Marquess de Maulevrier Langerop, our Governour, who arrived from Paris the 27th past, has found every thing here upon a good Foot; but he intends, for all that, that all Goods susceptible of Contagion shall be exposed to the Air, though several of the Inhabitants have represented, that such a Course will be next to impracticable, because it would be hardly possible to find for that purpose a convenient Place within three or four Leagues round this City, or People sufficient to carry out the Effects: Besides, all the Houses that were infected being now purified, as well as the Furniture, it is unnecessary to expose the Goods of uninfected Houses to the Air; which Precaution was never made Use of in the Height of the Plague at London, Hambourg, &c. so that the Merchants and Shopkeepers are still in hopes that this Design will not be put in Execution, or at least not according to the Letter: There are yet 77 Persons in the Hospital, of whom 13 are recovered and under Quarantain, and 51 are growing better. A Minime Fryar was hanged here last Week; he formerly had the Inspection of the Cloister Kitchen, and designed two Years ago to have poisoned his Brethren of the Order, but his Intention being timely discovered, he was seized and shut up in the Dominican Convent: After which, he escaped out of Prison, fled, and then married.

Venice, July 10. The Venetian Noble, Sig. Francisco Gritti, was unanimously chosen in the Senate the 5th Instant Ambassador in Ordinary from this Republick to the Ottoman Port, in the Room of Sig. Emo, whose Term is expired. Sig. Rossi, Prothonotary and Arch-Priest of the Cathedral Church of Prescati, has presented to the Fraternity of St. Stephen, a Bit, said to be of the Holy Cross; and this Relick has been exposed three Days successively in St. Pantani's Church, and last Sunday a solemn Procession was made there, attended by a great Crowd of the Nobility and Common People.

Dantzick, July 5. Affairs are at present so disposed in Poland, that if the good Agreement is real which is observed among the Nobility, there is great Hopes the next Meeting of the Grand Diet will be attended with Success; and 'tis affirmed, that in that Diet a Proposal will be made for securing the Succession of the Kingdom to the Prince Royal. The Balthaw of Choczin has sent Advice to the Governour of Caminick, that M. Popiel, the Polish Ambassador, is safely arrived at Adrianople; to which Place he was escorted by a Detachment of Horse, and had the Expenses for himself and Retinue born all the Way.

Warsaw, July 11. The King arrived here the 8th Instant under a General Discharge of the Artillery planted behind the Palace and before the Arsenal; his Majesty being fatigued with his Journey went to Repose soon after his coming. The next Day all the Senators, and foreign Ministers waited upon the King, and the Bishop of Pozen, after he had paid his Compliments to his Majesty, requested him to go to the Cathedral and return Thanks to God for his safe Arrival, which his Majesty immediately complied with, and heard the Bishop say Mass, after which the Te Deum was sung, accompanied with Trumpets and Kettle Drums. Divine Service being ended, the King returned to the Palace where all the Senators attended to pay him their Compliments; the King has since given Audience to several Senators and Nobility, and held a Conference Yesterday with the Chiefest of them, concerning the late Peace concluded between Sweden and Moscow, and other publick Matters: It is said, the Republick presses the King very much to send his circular Letters to summon a Grand Diet as soon as possible.

Ratisbon, July 16. The Minister of Bavaria has received an Anonymous Letter by the Post, acquainting him a Conspiracy is formed against his Life, and that he cannot avoid the Stroke without he sends 4000 Florins to certain Persons at Frankfurt.

Hague, July 21. 'Tis added to the News concerning the Dutch East India Fleet, homeward bound, that three Ships are lost instead of two, as was mentioned the last Post, and that the other five that were missing are arrived at the Cape of Good Hope, extremely disabled, and their Cargoes very much damaged, which has caused the India Actions to fall here considerably. The States of Holland are broke up, without coming to any Resolution upon M. Hogenloep the Receiver General's Affair, who perceiving that the Majority of the Cities are against him, has determined to submit himself to the Council of State, before which he appeared Yesterday Morning for the first Time. Count Strahlenberg is expected here To-morrow from Amsterdam.

Paris, July 22. The Palais here is going to be repaired and beautified against February next, on the 16th Day of which Month the King's Majority will be declared, for which Purpose his Majesty will then hold a Bench of Justice in the Parliament of Paris. M. de Rothe writes the 10th Instant from Languedoc, That the General Quarantain was carried on regularly and successfully. Nothing new had happened in all the Country which had been infected. On the 10th began the Quarantain of 20 Days for perfuming and airing the Goods susceptible of Contagion which are in the Towns and Communities of the uninfected Parts of the Country. He writes the 13th that one third of the General Quarantain being over without any Accident, he hoped it would end so, notwithstanding the excessive Heats they had had for three Weeks, and the inevitable Communication in suspected Places for removing Household Goods and Merchandizes to be purified. He confirms the Recovery of a Woman who had been ill at Mende, and the Currence of the ordinary Distemper: M. de Vicussens Physician at Alais writes the 11th of July,

July, that the Measles and Small Pox began to be common there, as also Fevers and Diffenteries, by him judged to be certain Marks of the ceasing of the Contagion; of which there had not been the least Appearance in 34 Days. M. de Fraisse the commanding Officer at Mende, writes the 7th of July, that according to the Opinion of Physicians a Woman who was taken ill the 30th of June was out of Danger. They had Fevers and Pleuritis there, but nothing of the Contagion. The Quarantine and Disinfection went on very well there likewise. M. Gervais and Jennin Physicians at Mende, send the same Advices.

This Day is Published, a new Edition of, The History of the Royal Society of London for the Improving of Natural Knowledge. By Thomas Sprat, D. D. late Lord Bishop of Rochester. Printed for Jacob Tonson at Shakespeare's Head against Catherine-Street in the Strand.

A certain Cure for FOUNDER'D HORSES, by an excellent Chymical Secret, which immediately takes away all Pain and Anguish in their Feet, and all burning Heat, and parching Dryness, supplie and cooling them to Admiration, and causing them to become kindly moist and easy, and the Hoof to grow naturally wide, so as not to pinch them; making those Horses that Before could scarce stand, or when they did, stood with all their four Feet crumpling up, able to stand and tread out freely and boldly, without the least Pain, Uneasiness, or Lameness: Those that are but a little ho in the Feet, it presently sets up and recovers; and those that seemed to be in a short Time, making them as perfectly firm and sound in their Feet as ever, as the Author has for many Years past experienced. It is to be had only at Mrs. Bell's, a Book-seller, at the Cross Keys and Bible in Cornhill, near Stock's-Market, at 3 s. 6 s. 2 Glass, with Directions.

The only true and original Royal Chymical Wash-Baths for the Hands and Face, are removed from Mr. Luffbert's, the Glover's, to prevent the Publick's being imposed on by Counterfeits, which are not only ineffectual, but may also prove dangerous; and are now sold only at Mr. Allcroft's Toyshop, at the Blue-Coat-Boy, under Bridges's Coffee-house, against the Royal Exchange in Cornhill, and at Mrs. Gilles's, Milliner, next Hercules-Pillars-Alley by the Temple. They have above these Twenty Years been largely experienced, and highly commended for making the Skin so delicately soft and smooth, as not to be parallel'd by either Wash, Powder, Cosmececk, &c. being indeed real Beautifiers of the Skin, taking off all Deformities, as Tetter, Ring-worms, Measles, Sun-burn, Scurf, Pimples, Pins or Redness of the Small-pox, keeping it of a lasting and extreme Whiteness. They soon alter red or rough Hands, are admirable in saving the Head, not only giving a more exquisite Sharpness to the Razor, but to comfort the Brain and Nerves as to prevent catching Cold. They are of a grateful and pleasant Scent, without the least Grain of Mercury. Price 1 s. each.

This is to give Notice,

That the Specifick Alterative Diet-Drink, for the Leprosy, and all Leprous, or Impetiginous, that is to say, Scabby, Scaly, Sturfy, Tettery, or other obstinate, Rubbrous Eruptions, or Breakings-out upon the Skin, Swellings, Sores, or Ulcers, from Scorbutick, Evilly, or other salt sharp or foul distempered Humours in the Blood, which has cured great Numbers of People in all Conditions, and of all Distinctions, when no other Remedies or Methods, (even Salivations) would avail, as appears by the Testimonies and Certificates of Clergymen, and others of Repute, who were Eye Witnesses thereof, as well as the Patients themselves, continues to be prepared by the Author, J. MARTEN, Surgeon, who may be spoke with, or writ to about it, over-against the Silk Dyers, a little Way up the Old-Bailey, from Ludgate-Hill.
